TFSRI Auction Bowl Show Rules.

1. The competition is open to all auction attendees. No club membership is required to enter. The entry must be a living fish.
2. No air or electricity will be provided. If your fish requires air you may use a battery-operated air pump. The entrant must provide the aquarium and water in which to display their entry. A top must be affixed to the aquarium to prevent the fish from jumping out of the container.
3. Maximum aquarium size of 5 gallons.
4. One entry per person.
5. Entries must be set up by noon and cannot be removed before 4:00 PM on the day of the Auction.
6. Voting will be by people's choice secret ballot. Each bidder card comes with one ballot. Ballots must be submitted by 4:00 PM on the day of the auction. Illegible ballots will be disqualified.
7. Each entry must have a label with the species name. A label with the entry number will be issued and the entrant's name will be recorded on a data sheet maintained by a designated TFSRI volunteer. The entrant's name should not be on the aquarium with the bowl show entry.
8. At or around 5:00 PM, the winners will be announced. First Place will receive $75, Second Place will receive $50 and Third Place will receive $25. In the event of a tie, a judge will be appointed by TFSRI to break the tie. The judge's decision is final.
9. All efforts will be made to protect submissions. However, TFSRI is not responsible for any accidental damage or loss incurred during the competition.
10. Any entries not removed by the end of the auction will be property of TFSRI.

TFSRI Auction Photography Competition

1. The competition is open to all auction attendees. No club membership is required to enter.
2. Up to 3 entries are allowed per person.
3. The subject matter is limited to aquaria, water gardens, ponds and aquatic life. The entrant need not own the aquarium or subject but must have taken the photograph. Subjects can be captive or wild. Entries deemed to be obscene or offensive, or containing profanity will be disqualified and removed. There is no limit on post work used on the photograph.
4. Entries must be set up by noon and cannot be removed before 4:00 PM on the day of the Auction.
5. Entries shall be printed photographs and should be at least 5" x 5" in size and not larger than 20" x 20". Entries may be displayed on a wall or on a table depending on space availability. Tape may be used on the back of the print to fasten the photos to a wall. Entries may be framed or mounted at the entrants' discretion.
6. Voting will be by people's choice secret ballot. Each bidder card comes with one ballot. Ballots must be submitted by 4:00 PM on the day of the auction. Illegible ballots will be disqualified.
7. Each entry should have a label with the species name, or subject description. A label with the entry number will be issued and the entrant's name will be recorded on a data sheet maintained by a designated TFSRI volunteer. The entrant's name and contact information should be on the back of the print.
8. At or around 5:00 PM, the winners will be announced. First Place will receive $75, Second Place will receive $50 and Third Place will receive $25. In the event of a tie, a judge will be appointed by TFSRI to break the tie. The judge's decision is final.
9. All efforts will be made to protect submissions. However, TFSRI is not responsible for any accidental damage or loss incurred during the competition.
10. Any entries not removed by the end of the auction will be property of TFSRI.
